A MESSAGE FROM CASEY AFFLECK...

You know what's wicked awesome? Wakin' up crack of dawn, buddy. The world's all hushed, and you finally get a slice of peace for yourself. Just like snaggin' a Dunkin's before kickin' off your day.

And let me tell ya, if you're as pumped about marketing as I am, there's somethin' even earlier you gotta consider. It's time to snag that Early Bird ticket to the NCMPR Conference in Boston before tickets are wicked expensive!

The NCMPR District Conference in Boston from November 2-4 is gonna be like the Dunkin's of all marketing events, brah.

You'll snag cheap seats, make connections, and learn some stuff about the marketing biz. It's gonna be freakin' awesome, so don't snooze on this one, buddy!
